

“Survivor Italian” and Sicilian Food
Experience Course
From 06 to 26 June 2022

Course Description

3 weeks course

The course is designed for all those who intend to have a unique experience by totally immersing themselves in Sicilian culture.

The course will be held at Scie Center in the Island of Ortigia in Syracuse, with excellent teachers and qualified staff.

The course offers 24 hours of “Survivor Italian” which allows participants to learn the basics of Italian in order to be able to communicate with Sicilians during their stay in Syracuse.

The course includes a unique experience through the flavors of fantastic Sicilian food.

There will be cooking classes, where you will learn how to make pasta and bread according to Sicilian customs, using the ancient tools that Sicilian women used to cook.

There will be the opportunity to visit the most fantastic archaeological sites in Sicily, such as Agrigento, Taormina, and the Archaeological Park of Syracuse.

We will take you to the Ortigia open-air market to learn how to recognize fish and fresh fruit. It will be a fascinating journey through Sicilian food, language, traditions and culture.

Ortigia:

An Island in the Island, Ortigia is the perfect place for a full immersion into the culture of Sicily.

Welcoming and intimate, it is an ideal base for the discovery of Siracusa and beyond.

Sicily’s position at the Mediterranean Sea has made it a crossroads of civilizations with a wealth of aspects to explore.

It is an open-air lab for art and archaeology, for language and literature, for food, agriculture and sustainability.

And who can resist the local lifestyle, with its emphasis on the enjoyment of life, good company and excellent food and wine?
